Live Webinar during the Essex Metro
Immunization Coalition September Meeting

Why Vaccines During Pregnancy are Essential

This presentation during the Essex Metro Immunization Coalition Meeting will review the importance of vaccines during pregnancy and current recommendations.

Tia Welsh, MD, MPH, FACOG, CPE is the Chair of Women's Services for the Valley Health System in Bergen County, NJ. Dr. Welsh has had an extensive career in public health working in underserved areas of New York City and Long Island prior to coming to New Jersey. She strives and encouraged preventative health practices, safe pregnancies, family planning, and well woman care for all women.

Jessica Richman is a current Board Member for Families Fighting Flu, a national nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to saving lives and reducing hospitalizations by protecting children and their families against influenza through education and advocacy. Jessica originally came to Families Fighting Flu following the loss of her 3-year-old daughter, Cayden, to the flu in 2014. Jessica wants everyone to realize how devastating the flu can be, even for healthy individuals, and how quickly it can take the life of a loved one.
