

Partnership Continuing Education Programs

AVAILABLE TO BE HELD AT YOUR SITE*

BEREAVEMENT

Caring for Families Through Perinatal Loss

How to support a family during perinatal loss and support services available in the community
Opportunity to hear directly from parents about their personal stories. (1.5 hours)

BREASTFEEDING

Lactation Initiation: Skills to Support New Parents

Basics of supporting initiation of breastfeeding

IMMUNIZATIONS

Closing the Gaps: Effective Strategies to Increase Immunization Rates

Current immunization rates and disparities, vaccine hesitance, and tips to boost immunization rates

PERINATAL ADDICTIONS PREVENTION

Identifying Codependent Relationships: Assessment and intervention

Codependency signs and recovery

Co-occurring Disorders: Mental health and substance use

Co-occurrence of mental health & substance use disorders

Opioids, Addiction, and Alternatives

Overview of opioid addiction and alternatives to opioid use
Meets the registered nurse licensure renewal in the State of New Jersey

Overview of Substance Abuse, Prevention, and Treatment

Overview of basics of substance abuse (Two hours)

Cannabis, Pregnancy, and Breastfeeding

Reviews the many forms of cannabis and how it affects the body, pregnancy, the developing fetus, and the breastfeeding baby

Social work continuing education credits available

PERINATAL MOOD DISORDERS

Perinatal Depression Update for Health Professionals: Identification, Referral, & Resources

Postpartum depression & support for patients/clients

Programs can be in-person, virtual, or hybrid.*

All programs are one hour in length unless otherwise indicated.

For more information about programs, continuing education credits or to schedule, contact Sarah Muller-Robbins at 862-281-3824 or srobbins@pmch.org